ABOUT ME

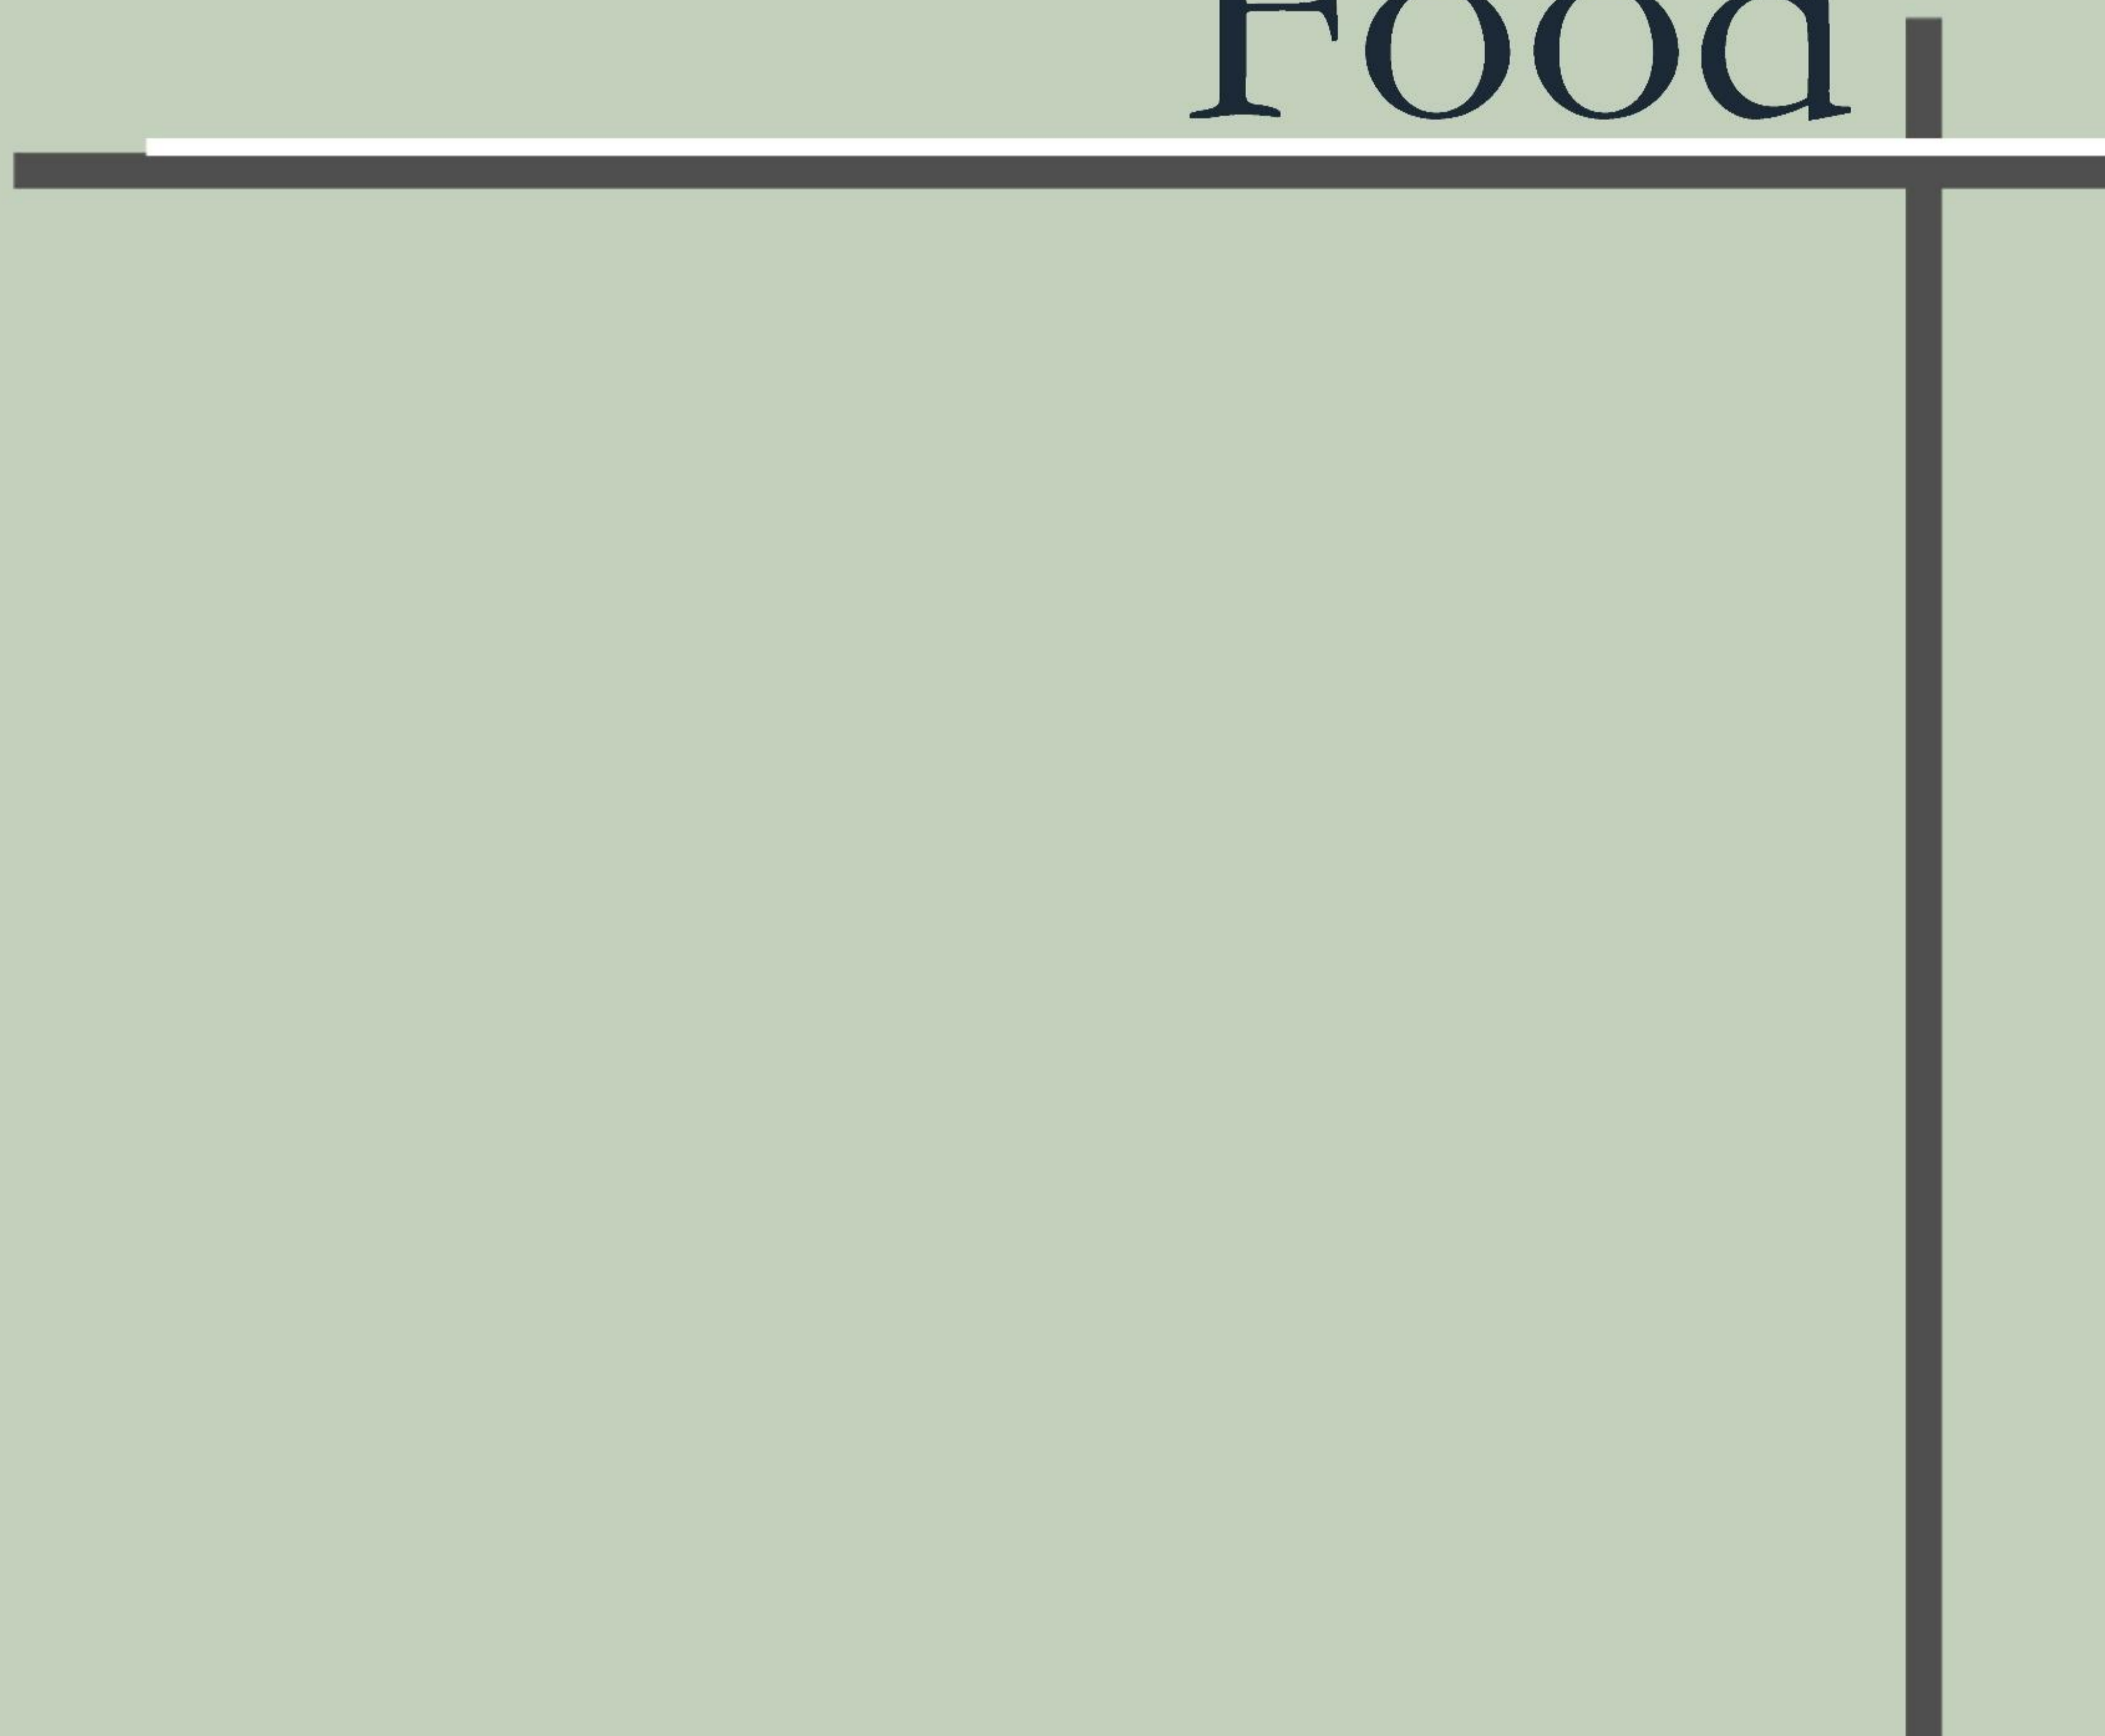

Creative, Passionate and Ambitious i'm a professional photographer who loves to share different aspects in life.

In 2015, i fell in love with photography and got the chance to express myself through my photos.

Capturing emotions, and moments is the most valuable thing in my job.

As a photographer i have the chance to see life from a different perspective through my lense and that's what makes it more intresting.
