

Tri-Pulley CSR

About Tri-Pulley

Tri-Pulley breaks dependency on traditional charity by providing part-time jobs for a social cause that support families and small businesses.

We also believe that gaming and experiential learning can drive real social impact. We transform traditional corporate activities, into fun, engaging, and socially impactful experiences. With proceeds creating more jobs for Lebanon.

Thematic Bike Rally Paper

Objective: The objective of these rally papers are to support teamwork, strategic thinking, and creativity while promoting exploration, fun, and meaningful connections, all aligned with the company's goals and a social impact theme.

Outdoor Escape Games

Objective: Whether you're Lebanese or a tourist, step into the stories that shaped our cities. From the once-feared streets of Beirut to the vibrant alleys of Tripoli! Solve clues. Walk through history. Experience Beirut's underground and uncover Tripoli's secrets through thrilling adventures.

In Their Shoes Board Game

Objective: This game highlights the employer-employee dynamic, showing how decisions impact both sides and why balance is key. It touches on essential workplace values like leadership, teamwork, communication, and the difference between short- and long-term investments—all while promoting team bonding and fun.

Career Quest Board Game

Objective: Dive into a session of fun, learning, and purpose - test your knowledge, gain career insights, and contribute to job creation in Lebanon through trivia questions, challenges and networking opportunities.

Online Games: Talent Express

Objective: This unique plane, powered by talent and diversity instead of gasoline, is on a mission to find the unity stone to restore harmony in the world. During the online session, participants gather as many talents as possible to fuel the plane. Through various challenges, they get to know each other better, have fun, and embrace their diversity.

Say It With a Card

Objective: In times of crisis, socially impactful gifts mean more. Instead of a typical present, we encourage gifting a contribution that helps create jobs for a social cause, in your Team member or client name. They'll then receive a card by a Lebanese artist, showing that their gift helped someone in Lebanon find a job.

International Game Trip-pulley Airline

Objective: The Lebanese diaspora team up for 24h worldwide with their foreign neighbors and people in Lebanon to solve the challenges, riddles and questions. Passengers board a virtual airplane, get their creative hats on and put on interesting ways to express their love to Lebanon!

Gamification Of Trainings

Objective: Incorporate game mechanics into training, evaluations, and focus groups to boost engagement, enhance knowledge retention, and create a more interactive and motivating learning experience.

Human knot Game

Objective: A storm hits a vulnerable community, and Tri-Pulley calls on your company to take action. You step in to support recovery efforts through a series of engaging, real-life inspired challenges that promote teamwork, leadership, and social impact by building Human knots. This game is suitable for all ages.

Murex Event in Cyprus & Lebanon

Fish The Compass Game

Objective: Participants embark on a ship caught in a sudden storm, symbolizing real-life pressures like deadlines and crises. Through collaboration, problem-solving, and resilience, they support one another and rediscover the compass, a powerful reminder of shared goals, strategies, and collective strengths that unite the team and guide them forward as one crew.
